Foreword

Dear Diary;

September 2, 1966

Another year at C.H.S. begins. We met the faculty --old and new faces crowded the halls.

"Moments to Remember" was the best prom ever; the senior party was a success; baseball had a good season--last spring is not forgotten.

It's a wonderful feeling to know you're on top at last--a Senior! Memories will linger as graduation draws near; caps, gowns, commencement . . .

The Cavaliers, a team that's viewed with respect by all competitors, once again proved their prowess on the basketball courts and football fields.

The Juniors are working hard for the Junior-Senior Prom; they are looking forward to their final year in "68."

Pep assemblies, and Homecoming Week, were a few of the activities that eased the studying at C.H.S.

The class of "69" Sophs are finally learning to live the life of a C.H.S. student.

The main organization of the school--the Student Council, functioned on their usually high level to improve our school standards.

The Freshman are still amazed at a high school routine; they should be ready for the world in "70."

Advertisements--the people who helped make the "67 Novera" possible, how can we ever thank them?

It's been a great year, a year to remember, a year that's ended, but it's not ended for you. Novera captures that great year and all its memories in its own special way, for you to relive; over, and over, and over, . . . never again to be forgotten . . .

FACULTY

To The Senior Class of 1967:

A Challenge To "DO"

Every wrong is a challenge for people with vision. Every need is a task for Someone. Each of us can do something which must be done, lest it go undone and the world become poorer.

Perhaps no program is greater than that of helping people to see the needs and to know their own abilities to meet those needs, and helping them to develop the motivation that will make them great.

If the statement of the sage be true that "education is not causing a man to KNOW what he does not KNOW, but causing him to DO what he does not DO," let's check and see if we are educated. Granted great motivation, great deeds will follow.

E. H. Hurray

To the young adults at Carrollton High School:

One thing stands out in my mind above all else when I think of the past year at Carrollton. I believe that the greatest share of the responsibility of improving a school's status belongs to the student body--and you have proven this to me beyond any doubt.

You have made many strides forward in all areas of school life, but this should never be enough for any of you. You should never be satisfied until everyone is willing and eager to put forth 100% for the welfare of his school, classmates, and teachers above his own personal selfishness.

ACTIVITIES

Twenty-eight girls competed for the 1966-67 Homecoming Court. They are from left to right: Mary Lou McMall, Donna Brenske, Connie Osmond, Mary Ann Buchholz, Ruth Castillo, Linda Tykoski, Ann Bauer, Connie Zumer, Nancy Fillion, Joy Rethman, Cheryl Gaiser, Jacqui Wells, Mary Gallardo, Angie Delos Santos, Judy McDonald, Barb Bierd, Judy Lewis, Marla Bergey, Janet Pegley, Alberta Miller, Connie Rousseau, Susan Moore, Mary Deeg, Cindy Hart, Janice Youmans, Terrie Herald and Kathy Franzen. Not shown is Frankie Hart.

The band adds high spirits to Homecoming Week.

"I am a slave" were the cries of Gary Compau, Martin Garchow, Kathy McMall, Debbie Dobis, Christina Horberg and Mary Lou McMall participating in the Homecoming Week activities.

Football an' Fantasy

The Seniors are always diligently working, even Gary Compau.

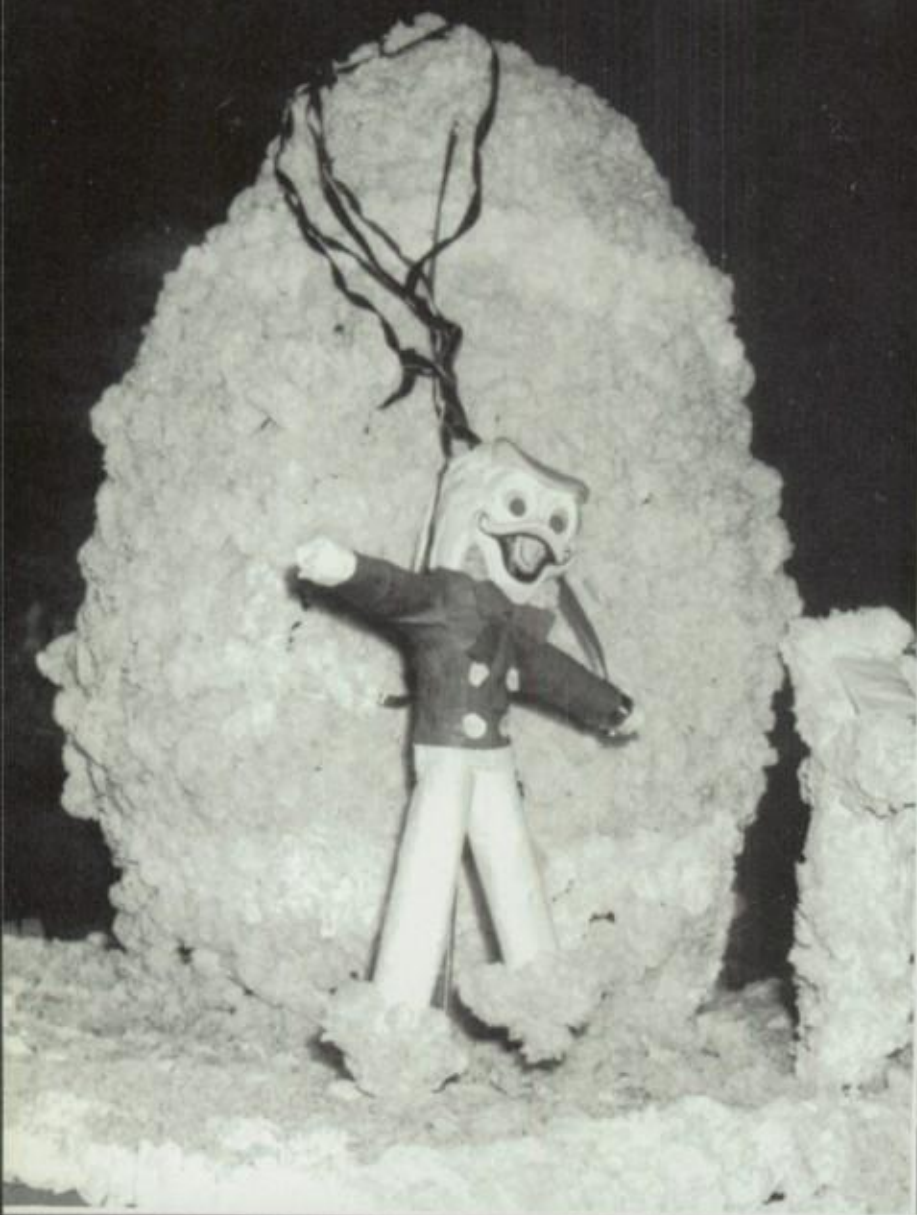

Football martians are being papier-mached by the Sophomore Class for their float.

"Chomp Tech" the winning float was entered by the Junior Class into the contest in the Homecoming Parade.

AND HER COURT: Kathy Franzen, Ann Bauer, Marla Bergey, and Nancy Fillion.

Oh Daddy!

"Confusion, wonderful thoughts of the night to come, having goose bumps, and being extremely nervous, were my reactions on Homecoming.

I could hardly wait for the parade to begin at 5:30. Arriving at the school, all I could see were people shivering, our Band arrayed in colors, colorful floats of every size and shape, and five convertibles waiting for us to enter. I felt as if butterflies would be my constant companions throughout the whole night.

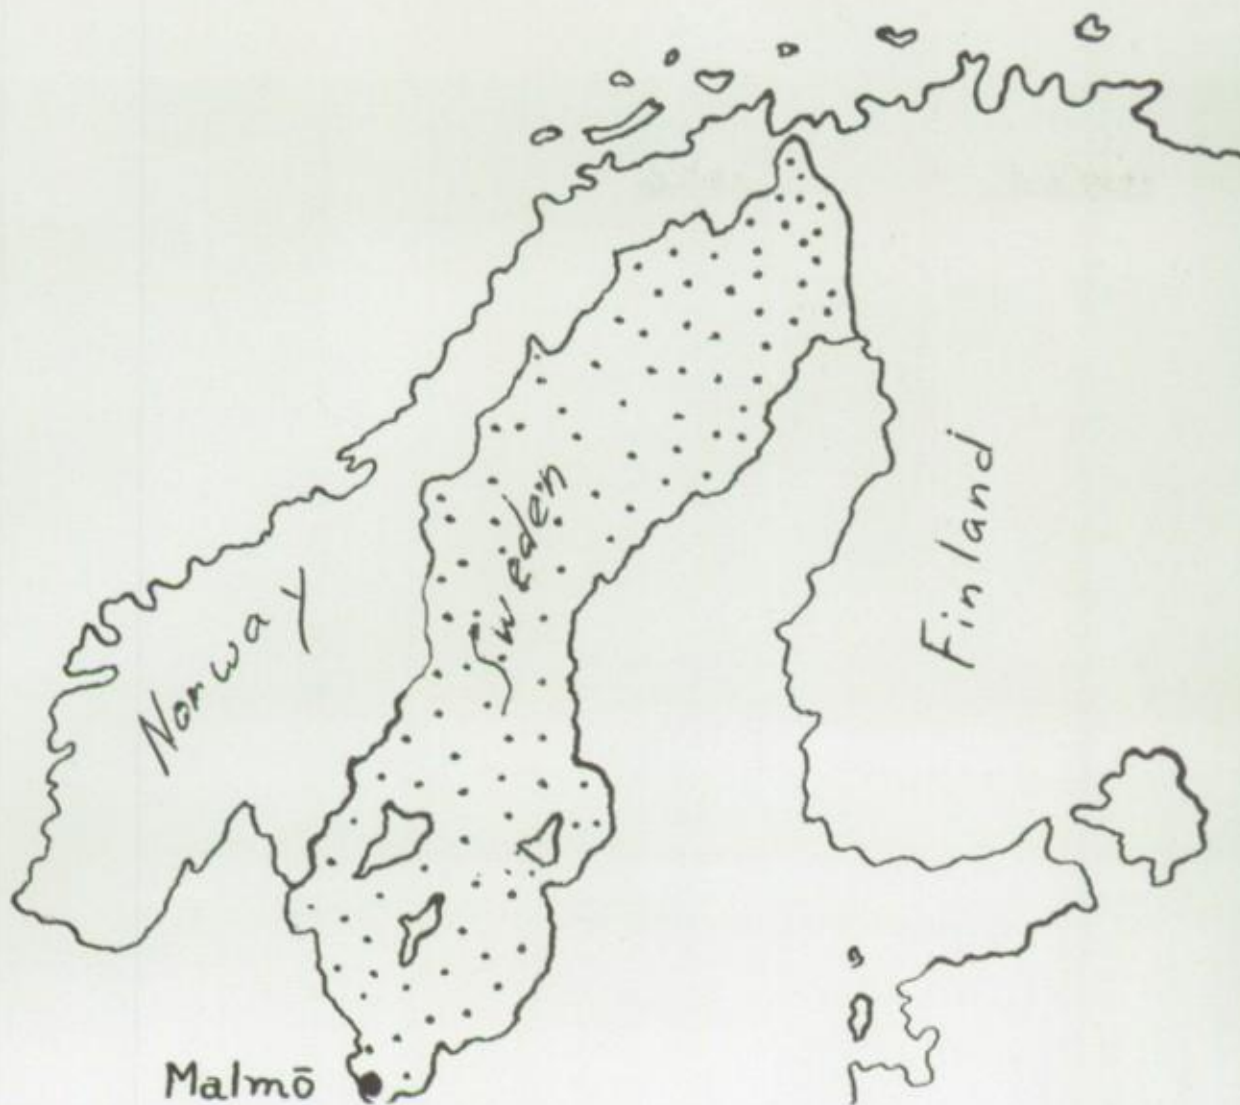

At last half time arrived and around the field went the cars. Down the center of the field we walked and stopped almost directly in front of the bleachers.

There was dead silence as Mr. Diechman came over the loud speaker. When he said I had been chosen Queen, I couldn't believe it. I was stunned, amazed, bewildered, and felt very proud that the student body had chosen me as their Homecoming Queen. When I was crowned by knees shook and I hung on to my Dad for dear life. It was a beautiful and perfect night filled with memories that I'll treasure forever."

Dancing filled the night with music by the Mersyside Sounds.

Malmö the town where Christina was born is the third largest in Sweden. The population is 260,000 people.

Christina enjoys taking part in our Homecoming activities which is true America.

I cannot believe that I some months ago did not know where Carrollton was and did not know any of the students of C.H.S. I have been so much richer since I came here. You do not have many years like this in your life. I have seen much of your country and customs, but I want to come back another time to see more. I think I have seen the real American life both at my home here and at school. Now I know it is true that you have a lot of things that make school more fun, such activities as Homecoming, Pep Week, slave auctions, assemblies and so on. How can I ever forget it. I am so glad I was one who got one of the most wonderful opportunities in life; a year as a student in another country. I will have lots of things to show and talk about when I am back in "old Sweden" and be sure I have memories for life.

The Spirit of Pep Week

"Purr-fect game, Teachers."

"Mommy, where are you?"

"The uncouth barbarian is tamed."

"And the band plays on."

Above: Are they really going to make us go out there?

Left: Come on boys this fake beer won't last very long.

Below: Cavalier fans are enthused about the way the great Cavaliers are romping Arthur Hill Tech.

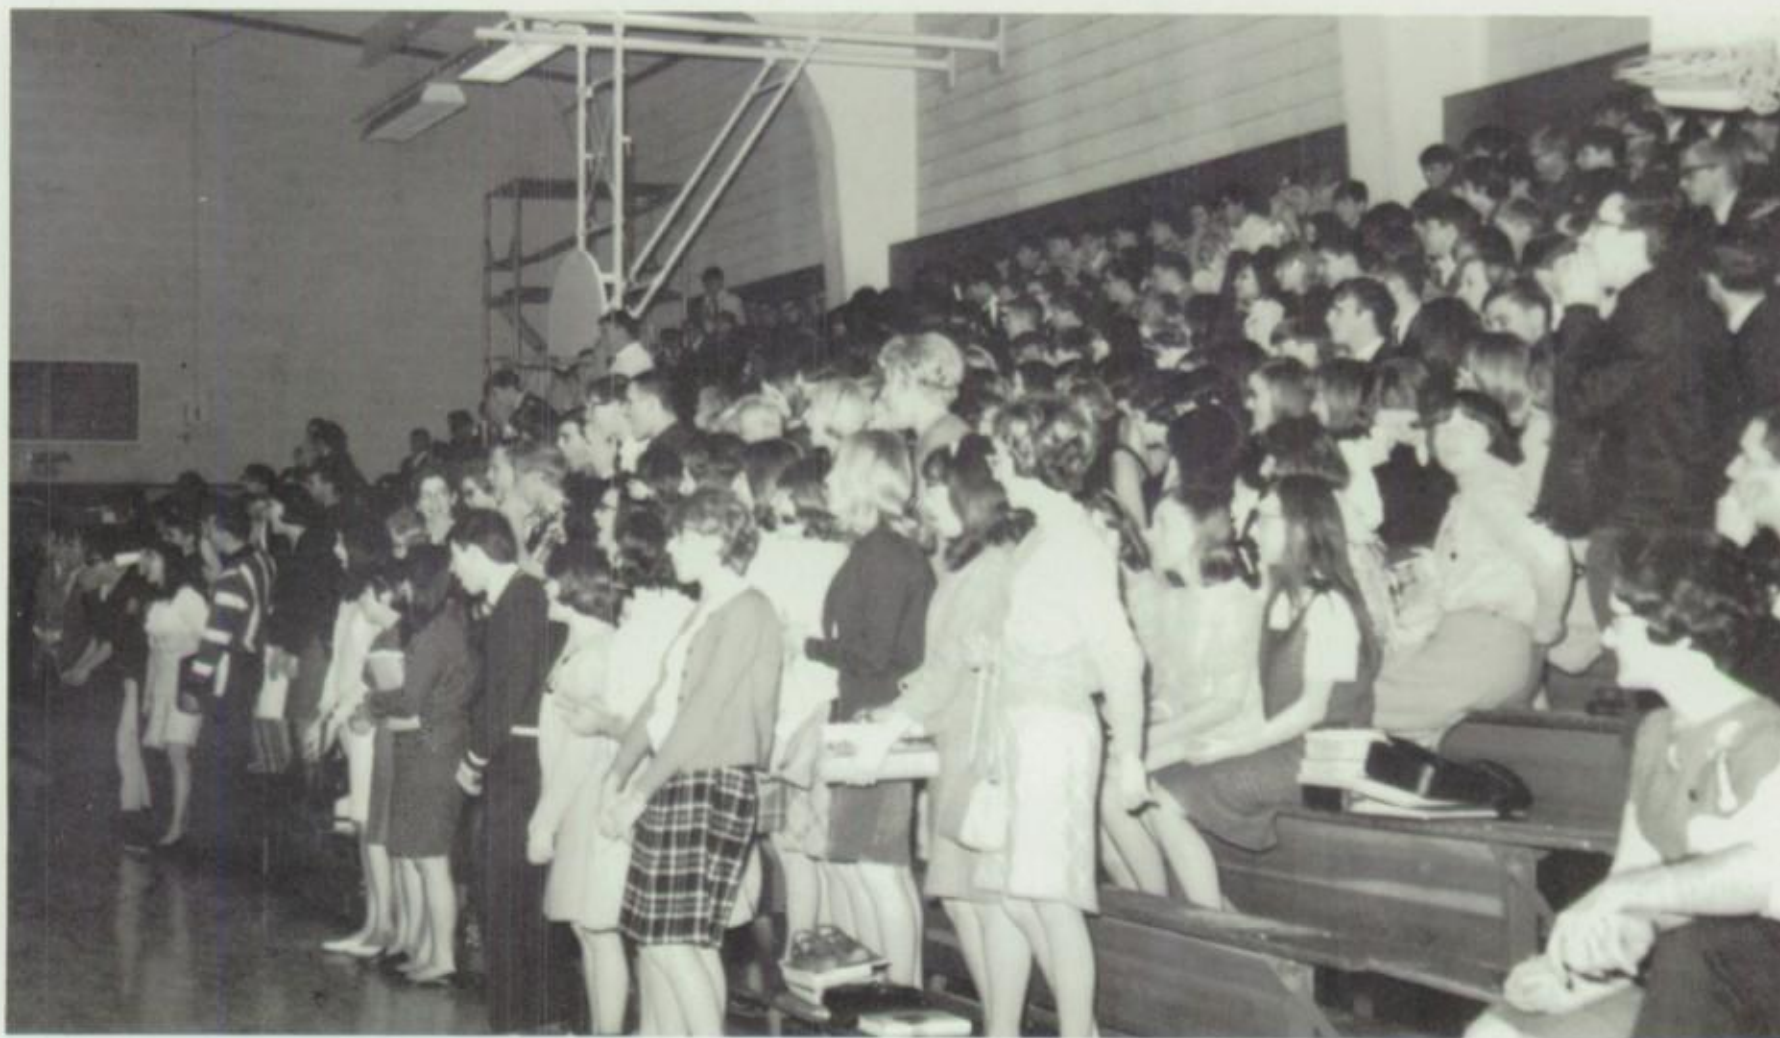

Y-TEENS: SITTING, Claudia Nichols, Willie Dawkins, Treasurer Mollie Shells, Vice-President Joyce Jones, President Frankie Hart, Secretary Cindy Scott, Corrine Lowery, Gloria Mason. STANDING, Mrs. Hersem, Jackie Wilburn, Johnnie Hart, Mary Jane Nichols, Nola Carter, Hazel Sullivan, Maggie Stovar, Carolyn Patterson, Mary Washington, Priscilla Washington, and Betty Brown.

Above: Pa Shirlely Chatman and Ma Alberta Miller. Across: Freshman Beauties are Pat Fillion, Nancy Deeg, Janice Blazejewski, Debbie Dobis, Carla Langschwager, Debbie Leland, and Gloria Harris.

The seniors are showing their spirit at a Pep Assembly by showing who can yell the loudest.
